

PRESS RELEASE for immediate release

Upcoming GPHG ceremony 9 November 2023

Geneva, 8 February 2023 - An annual celebration of contemporary watchmaking excellence and creativity, the 23rd Grand Prix d'Horlogerie de Genève (GPHG) awards ceremony will take place on Thursday 9 November 2023 at the Théâtre du Léman in Geneva.

In the run-up to this key event in the international watchmaking calendar, the GPHG Academy encompassing key players in the sector and passionate enthusiasts will be able to propose models liable to compete from April onwards; before making a nomination pre-selection among the timepieces entered by brands in the competition; and then taking part alongside the jury in the final vote to draw up the prize list.

The 2023 list of members of the GPHG Academy will be unveiled in March.
Entries for this prestigious competition can be submitted from May 2023 onwards.

About the GPHG: Created in 2001 and overseen since 2011 by a Foundation recognised as a public interest organisation, the Grand Prix d'Horlogerie de Genève (GPHG) has for 20 years been pursuing its mission as an international showcase for the art of watchmaking. It achieves this with the support of its public and private partners – notably its principal partner, FGP Global Properties Swiss & Alps – as well as thanks to the participation of industry stakeholders.*

www.gphg.org

PRESS CONTACT :

Aude Campanelli : aude.campanelli@gphg.org

*#GPHG23 #GPHG #horlogerie #watchmaking #awards
#fgpsa #fgpswissandalps #forbesglobalproperties*